USPA NEWS - The U.S. Department of State is hosting fifteen officials from the Middle East and North Africa region as part of the International Visitor Leadership Program (IVLP) to explore strategies that prevent the destruction, looting, and trafficking of cultural heritage. Syria For all has its own plan.

Beginning this week, the U.S. Department of State is hosting fifteen officials from the Middle East and North Africa region as part of the International Visitor Leadership Program (IVLP) to explore strategies that prevent the destruction, looting, and trafficking of cultural heritage. In France President Hollande launched the international funds to protect cultural heritage

With the ongoing threat to archaeological heritage around the world, the program provides opportunities for the creation of partnerships and networks with U.S. museums, academic institutions, non-governmental organizations, U.S. law enforcement agencies, and other entities that protect and preserve cultural property. The program runs from July 9-30, 2016.

These exchange program participants will begin their visit in Washington, D.C., and then continue on to Chaco Culture National Historical Park, New Mexico; Santa Fe, New Mexico; St. Louis, Missouri; and New York, New York. In these locales, the participants will deepen their understanding of U.S. laws and legal mechanisms to prevent smuggling of artifacts into the United States and examine U.S. theory, practice, and application of new technologies in the area of cultural heritage protection. Meetings and site visits will also highlight advocacy methods used by public and private entities to raise awareness of conflict antiquities domestically and overseas.

MOHAMAD IZZAT KHATAB CHAIRMAN OF "SYRIA FOR ALL" SAYS IT CAN TAKE CARE BY ITSELF OF PRESERVING SYRIAN HERITAGE-----

Mohamad Izzat Khatab Chairman of "Syria For All" think about was him that "Culture must stop the war and we have seen in Afghanistan and Iraq that the treasures were stolen and destroyed as mercenaries. One of the projects of "Syria For All" is to recover the stolen treasures and rebuild a nation. We then are considering to rebuild museums, and restore the ruins of Palmyra. We did not work and requires foreign funds are for it. Syria For All is a foundation with funds are sufficient to finance the reconstruction of cultural heritage destroyed by ISIS. " On the other hand, the Syrian people will be able to find the footprints and marks of its history.

SYRIA FOR ALL WILL REBUILD THE MUSEUMS AND CULTURAL CENTERS FOR THE SYRIAN PEOPLE AND THE REST OF THE WORLD-----

Mohamad Izzat Khatab unveils his cultural plan by creating "a great cultural center will be erected to explain the history of Syria from his ancestors and history to the new generations". The goal is to re establish the link between the Syrian people since ancient times until today. The Syrians who are sisters from the threat of armed conflict will be able to return to their historical origins and even archeological because Syria was old cradle of the humanity. This homecoming of a Syrian income people of the exodus will allow its individual reconstruction in line with its pure genealogy and in line with the national family tree. This Initiative of "Syria For All" wants "The Syrian people feel better and finally back home.-----

The Syrian people will thus have the pride to be able to find in its history and later reconstituted to radiate this heritage through the new museum and cultural center. This operation will have a time to be reborn Syria from its ashes, especially in the context of the destruction by ISIS millennia remains, and the remainder of humanity was deprived of great priceless treasures. Other nations also saddened by the situation of refugees who make the worm world the doors of Europe fleeing terror, will also be reassured by the recovery finally come home refugees in their country. Demonstrations around the world who are in the UK, France, Canada and other supportive countries TSNT the cause of the Syrian people. It is also a way to express our gratitude to solidarity vis other peoples of our cause, through the cultural exchange with the restoration of the remains and the link with the cradle of mankind. All people will be excited for the Syrian people to know and knowing the repatriated to qualify again has access to the education culture.
